

911 EMERGENCY DISPATCHER

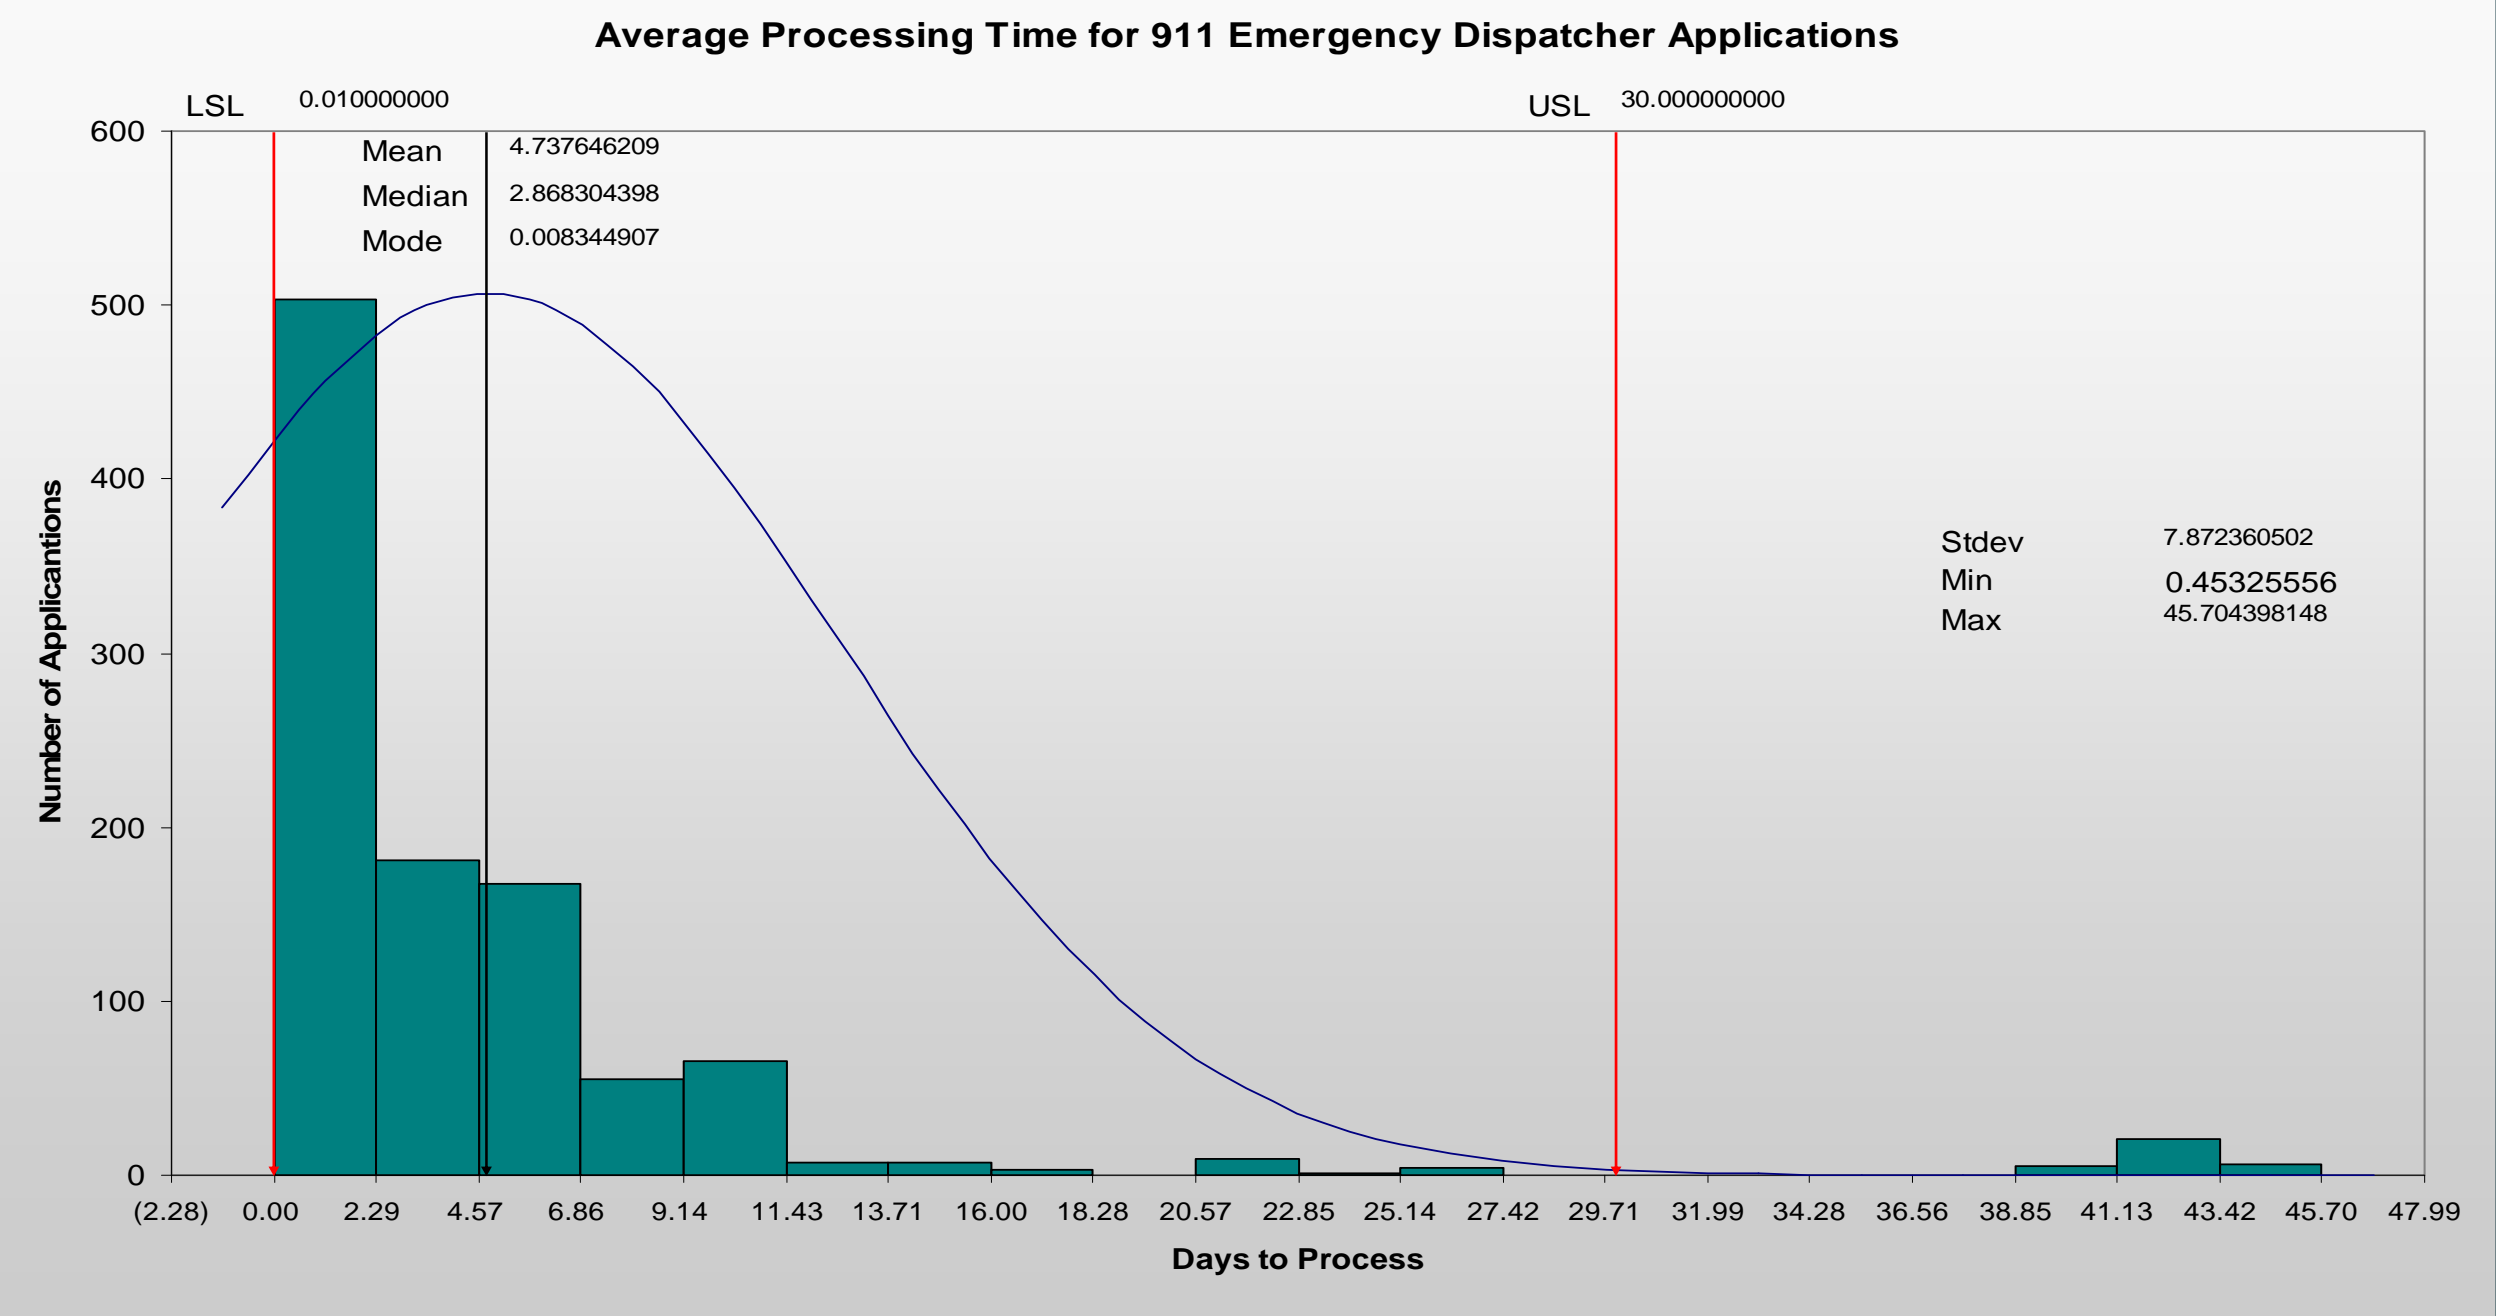

In 2008, the Florida Legislature established a voluntary certification program for 911 emergency dispatchers. This act created Florida Statutes 401.465, 911 emergency dispatcher certification which requires the Department of Health (DOH) to establish, by rule, educational and training criteria for the certification and requirements for certificate renewal. On February 1, 2009, DOH accepted the first application to voluntarily become a 911 emergency dispatcher. Since that time, DOH has developed rules to address the certification and recertification processes.
